

ALL ABOARD FOR AN AERIAL MARRIAGE

Samuel P. Bator of Philadelphia and Mrs. Louise Pitou Wolf of Vermont.

AS REVEALED BY CANVASSING BOARD

CROWN POINT, Ind., Nov. 5.—Twelve members of the canvassing board at Crown Point, who were assigned to the arduous task of compiling the vote of the 39 precincts in the county were a worn out lot when they left for their homes after 48 hours of faithful service last night.

The Farmer-Labor ticket failed to register a vote in two precincts of the county. These were the North township No. 2, and the 19th precinct of East Chicago. It might be added that the vote of the Mark Manufacturing plant is in the latter precinct.

It was not the fault of the Canvassing board that the public did not learn the official returns yesterday. It was because three Gary precincts did not bring in their tallies until Thursday. The fourth and ninth showed up about noon and the twentieth did not arrive until late in the afternoon. The three Gary precincts had the board sweating blood. Had these precincts not held them up the board might have finished their task early Thursday morning. In future elections something ought to be done to obliterate this nuisance.

In the 15th precinct in Hammond, the socialists defeated the democrats, the republicans getting 194, democrats 166, and the socialists 114. Outside of one other precinct this was the most well divided vote in the county.

There are still some prohibitionists left in scattered precincts over the county. They gave Vayhinger, candidate for U. S. senator, prohibition on the state ticket 217. Somebody didn't like his "running mate" and they sided off one.

Members of the canvassing board will "hit the hay" before the chickens roost tonight. They are chairman of the board, County Clerk Herbert Wheaton; N. Smith, Guy D. Clark, Howell Parry, Vernon Parry, August Wirtz, Richard Belfield, George Horst, Clarence Fats, Emil Lamberg, Earl Rockwell and a couple of bleary eyed reporters, who have been up since Tuesday morning.

Harding and Cox ran neck and neck in St. Johns precinct No. 3 (Sterrerville). Living up to its past reputation, the precinct gave Harding 32, Cox 31, Christensen 7 and Debs 4.

Cedar Creek No. 1 (Howell) proved to be the banner precinct for the republican ticket, giving Harding 742 votes to Cox 39, while Christensen snatched off 3 votes and Debs 2.

Although the democrats made their first on Dwight M. Kinder and his opponents predicted his defeat he came out of the fracas with a margin of 39,552 votes. Kinder got a total of 24,461 and Murray 8,578. Granger on the Farmer-Labor ticket received 2,843 votes.

When the canvassing board got droopy waiting for the three missing Gary precincts to come in "Nat" Smith kept the boys awake with a cold catch. "The hand is quicker than the eye," said Nat, and he convinced them that it was.

What were the socialist workers doing in the precincts of North township 2 and 3, Hanover No. 2 and Rose No. 1. They didn't register a vote in any of the above mentioned precincts.

"I'm not going home till we clean up," said Guy D. Clark, known as old faithful on the canvassing board, and he didn't. Mr. Clark has served on the canvassing board ever since "Nero was a pup" and if anyone knows the ins and outs of the board, it is he.

Hammond precinct No. 3 is the only precinct in the county that gave Cox a majority. The result is Harding 76, Cox 45, Debs 9 and Christensen 3.

North township, No. 2, in Hobart gave the biggest republican majority (according to percentage) in the county. Harding received 153, Cox 2, No votes were cast for either Debs or Christensen.
